

RASHTRIYA RAKSHA UNIVERSITY

(An Institution of National Importance)

Professor (Dr.) Bimal N. PATEL
Vice-Chancellor

Member, National Security Advisory Board, India

Lavad (Gandhinagar), Friday, 18 December 2020

RSU/VC/VV/237/2020

H.E. Ms Gaitri Issar Kumar
High Commissioner of India to United Kingdom
Email: hcoffice.london@mea.gov.in

National Security and Police – Resident Internship

Dear Madam,

On behalf of the Rashtriya Raksha University (www.rru.ac.in), an Institution of National Importance of India – pioneering national security and police University of India, I present my warm greetings to you and place for your positive consideration and action the following proposal.

1. RRU, as part of its global outreach initiative, is planning to develop strong bilateral relations with partner countries to develop people-to-people contact in the field of academic, research and training excellence in the domain of security, police, strategic and defence education, research and training through its qualified civilian, military and police faculty.
2. RRU is inviting applications from nationals of the United Kingdom with a particular focus on People of Indian Origin, NRIs, OCI Card-Holders living in the United Kingdom for exciting internship opportunities.
3. Desired qualification(s) and experience: Academic/research institutions, persons with minimum master degree / pursuing PhD or research project of interest for the aims and objectives of the University. People of Indian Origin (PIO), Non-Resident Indians (NRI), Overseas Citizens of India (OCI), female candidates are encouraged to apply.
 1. The Intern may assist or conduct academic, research and training assistance, seminars and similar activities for the RRU and RRU sponsored/assigned projects and programs in the following fields.
 1. Coastal Policing
 2. Security
 3. Law enforcement
 4. Criminal Justice – child protection, domestic violence
 5. Cyber Security
 6. Cyber Crime
 7. Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning

8. Relevant areas of internal security, including community policing, rural policing, women empowerment in law enforcement and policing, enhancement of police image
 9. Counter-Insurgency and Counter-Terrorism
 10. Security technology development, manufacturing and exports
4. The Intern will get an excellent opportunity to assist ongoing or future research projects together with like-minded faculty and students from RRU and external institutions; can assist organize training programs raising awareness among stakeholders on particular issues and challenges; can provide certificate 14-hours (1 credit course) on particular subject together with RRU faculty/resource persons, among others.
 5. The Intern will get free lodging facilities at the RRU Campus and will be provided with office space, as may be available, library access and will be associated with one of the 11 Schools of the University. The Intern may apply for scholarship or other financial assistance to Diplomatic Mission of India in the country of origin or Diplomatic Mission of nationality / permanent residency, Indian Council of Cultural Affairs, among others.
 6. Interested candidates may send detailed curriculum vitae, statement of motivation, proposed internship plan of action and anticipated duration, attention to Mr Jayraj Pandya, International Cooperation Office, Rashtriya Raksha University, Email: vcoffice@rru.ac.in. They can visit the RRU website and its Schools to learn more about academic courses, research projects, training programs.
 7. Alternatively, the Embassy can directly nominate an intern based on the assessment of the needs and interests of the Embassy.
 8. I am attaching an announcement for your ready reference.

We would greatly appreciate your facilitation of RRU Resident Internship Program request to contribute to the realization of RRU aims and objectives.

I thank you for your kind cooperation and assistance.

Bimal N. PATEL

Invitation
Rashtriya Raksha University of India
National Security and Police – Resident Internship

Rashtriya Raksha University (www.rru.ac.in), an Institution of National Importance of India – pioneering national security and police University of India, is inviting applications for National Security and Police Resident Internship.

1. RRU, as part of its global outreach initiative, is planning to develop strong bilateral relations with partner countries to develop people-to-people contact in the field of academic, research and training excellence in the domain of security, police, strategic and defence education, research and training through its qualified civilian, police and security faculty.
2. RRU is inviting application for national security and police resident research internship from academicians, researchers, scholars, senior students from reputed Universities/think-tanks from the following countries.* Minimum internship duration 8 weeks to maximum 6 months.
3. Desired qualification(s) and experience: Academic/research institutions, persons with minimum master degree / pursuing PhD or research project of interest for the aims and objectives of the University. People of Indian Origin (PIO), Non-Resident Indians (NRI), Overseas Citizens of India (OCI), female candidates are encouraged to apply.
4. The Intern may assist or conduct academic, research and training assistance, seminars and similar activities for the RRU and RRU sponsored/assigned projects and programs in the following fields.
 - Coastal Policing
 - Security
 - Law enforcement
 - Criminal Justice – child protection, domestic violence
 - Cyber Security
 - Cyber Crime
 - Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning
 - Relevant areas of internal security, including community policing, rural policing, women empowerment in law enforcement and policing, enhancement of police image
 - Counter-Insurgency and Counter-Terrorism
 - Security technology development, manufacturing and exports

5. The Intern will get an excellent opportunity to assist ongoing or future research projects together with like-minded faculty and students from RRU and external institutions; can assist organize training programs raising awareness among stakeholders on particular issues and challenges; can provide certificate 14-hours (1 credit course) on particular subject together with RRU faculty/resource persons, among others.
6. The Intern will get free lodging facilities at the RRU Campus and will be provided with office space, as may be available, library access and will be associated with one of the 11 Schools of the University. The Intern may apply for scholarship or other financial assistance to Diplomatic Mission of India in the country of origin or Diplomatic Mission of nationality / permanent residency, Indian Council of Cultural Affairs, among others.
7. Interested candidates may send detailed curriculum vitae, statement of motivation, proposed internship plan of action and anticipated duration, attention to Mr Jayraj Pandya, International Cooperation Office, Rashtriya Raksha University, Email: vcoffice@rru.ac.in.
8. Please visit the RRU website and its Schools to learn more about academic courses, research projects, and training programs.