

UNDERTAKING FOR THE CASES WHERE THE PASSPORT IS WITHHELD BY THE HOME OFFICE.

(A Letter from the Home Office with the reason for retention of Indian Passport to be submitted with this undertaking)

I Mr/Mrs/Ms. _____ (DOB: / /) hereby declare that my Passport No: _____ issued on _____ from
_____, which is to expire/expired on _____, is currently withheld by the Home Office for the purpose of
_____.

I am aware that, since there cannot be two valid passports for an individual at any given point in time. Thus I request you to please accept my application under the Lost Passport category, where my passport will automatically be cancelled in the government systems and treated as 'Lost Passport' before the issuance of a new passport/travel document to me, in lieu of passport lying with the Home Office.

I understand that the High Commission of India, London will not be responsible for the outcome of my pending visa application with the Home Office as the passport submitted with the visa application will automatically be cancelled in the government systems and treated as 'Lost Passport'.

I clearly understand that whatever the outcome of my passport application, the fee & other charges paid for this application are non-refundable.

SIGNATURE :-

NAME :-

PLACE :-

DATE :-